

International Student Guide: Working On and Off Campus & Applying for a Social Insurance Number

If you are a full-time student, you do not need a work permit to work off-campus, but you will need a Social Insurance Number (SIN).

Use IRCC's self-assessment tool to see if you are eligible to work off campus without a work permit.

Working on campus

You may work on campus at the institution where you study without a work permit if you have a valid study permit and you are a full-time student at NSCC.

Working off campus

Study permit holders in Canada may gain work experience by working off campus while completing their studies.

As of June 1, 2014, you may qualify to work off campus without a work permit. If you qualify, your study permit will allow you to:

- work up to 20 hours per week during regular academic sessions and
- work full-time during scheduled breaks, such as the winter and summer holidays or spring break.

Your study permit will indicate these conditions at the bottom of the document.

To qualify, you must:

- have a valid study permit,
- be a full-time student,
- be enrolled in a diploma or certificate program at NSCC that is longer than 6 months.

*Your study permit must include this condition – if it doesn't, contact NSCC International:

- May accept employment on or off campus if meeting eligibility criteria as per R186(f), (v) or (w). Must cease working if no longer meeting these criteria

Applying for a Social Insurance Number

The Social Insurance Number (SIN) is a nine-digit number that you need to work in Canada or to have access to government programs and benefits.

You must apply for a SIN through Service Canada. Click here for a link to all of the Service Canada offices in Nova Scotia: <http://www.servicecanada.gc.ca/cgi-bin/sc-srch.cgi?app=lst&pv=ns&ot=&ln=eng>

You need to provide a primary document to apply for a Social Insurance Number (SIN). Please see <http://www.servicecanada.gc.ca/eng/sin/apply/proof.shtml> for complete information.

A primary document is an official document that proves your identity and status in Canada. Service Canada needs to see an original of your primary document. If the name on this document is different from the name you currently use, you will also need to provide a supporting document.

All documents must be written in English or French or be accompanied by an official translation attested to by the translator before a notary public, or prepared by an officer of a foreign government or an official of the British or Canadian Consulate.

Primary and supporting documents for Students

Study permit issued by IRCC. A study permit is acceptable only when it indicates that the permit holder “may accept employment” or “may work” in Canada. If neither of these statements is on the study permit, you will need to apply to amend your study permit through IRCC.

Important note for temporary residents: you will receive a temporary confirmation of SIN letter that begins with the number "9". Your SIN expires on the date indicated in the “expires on” field of the letter. This expiry date is based on the CIC document that authorizes you to work in Canada.
