

International Student Guide: Applying for your visitor visa or eTA (studying in Canada for less than 6 months)

To study in Canada for less than 6 months, you must apply to Immigration, Refugee and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) for a visitor visa or electronic Travel Authorization (eTA).

Please check the CIC website to see what is required to enter Canada from your home country:
<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp>

eTA

In most cases, you will require an electronic Travel Authorization to enter Canada. This application is done online and costs $7. To complete the application, you will need your passport and a credit card.

The application requires this information: your name, date of birth, city and country of birth, funds available for your stay in Canada, passport number and issue and expiry dates, email address, and residential address.

You will be granted an eTA immediately following your application and $7 payment:

Temporary Resident (visitor) Visa (TRV)

Students from some countries will require a temporary resident visa (TRV) to enter the country:
<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp>

If you do require a TRV, please follow these steps:

Application process

You should apply online or in person at a Visa Application Centre (VAC). Find the VAC closest to you: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/offices/vac.asp>

Note: If you are required to submit biometrics (fingerprints), you cannot apply online; you should apply at a VAC: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/biometrics.asp>

Processing time

The length of time to process your application varies depending on the visa office where you applied and often ranges from 4-12 weeks. For more information, see application processing times.
