

PROGRAM SUMMARY

The 2022 International Days in Social Work will provide an opportunity for students from Social Services programs to travel to Linz, Austria to participate in a two-week opportunity in May/June 2022.

NSCC is offering this program in partnership with the University of Applied Sciences Upper Austria – Linz Campus. The first week will have students participating in the International Days in Social Work conference facilitated by the Linz Campus and other partners around the world.

This first week includes lectures/workshops by international guest lecturers, site visits to social work organizations and cultural activities. During the second week of the program will consist of sessions related to various social work areas presented by local experts, site visits to local support organizations, and cultural experiences. NSCC will be joined by students and faculty from other universities/colleges in the United States and Europe.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Apply knowledge, skills and attitudes from tasks and projects in an international setting;
- Outline the benefits of cross-cultural collaboration for work-related projects and tasks;
- Build evidence of experiences and new learning (both personal and industry related) for portfolio development and the education of others;
- Assess safety and risk pertaining to international travel to make informed decisions about travelling abroad;
- Identify and reflect on the differences and similarities between Canada and Austria.
